NUMB. 444

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM MONDAY September 20, to MONDAY September 27, 1742.

Mr. Timothy,

I ſend you a few Obſervations, which, I think, naturally offer themſelves from Dr. WATTS's Letters, which appear'd in your laſt Gazette.

1ſt. I CAN'T help remarking, that the Report, ſpread among us, about two Years ago, viz. 'That the 'Dr. gave me a friendly Caution, not to encourage Mr. 'Whitefield,' is now, under his own Hand, declared to be A GREAT FALSEHOOD! But 'tis not the FIRST.

2dly. It appears, from comparing the two Letters together, that Dr. WATTS has the ſame good Opinion of Mr. WHITEFIELD, which he had a Twelve Month ago. And this looks ſtrange, if he had reverſed his Character, gone into Moravian Principles, and preached againſt his own formerly received Opinions. Surpriſing it is, the good Dr. ſhould hear nothing of ſuch a Change; or if he heard it, ſhould be ſo ſilent about it, and ſpeak ſo honourably of the Man!

3dly. I obſerve, that Dr. WATTS differs very widely from your Correſpondent, in his Sentiments of the glorious Work, lately revived in New-England, and thinks it much to Mr Whitefield's Honour, that He was raiſed up by Providence as the Firſt Inſtrument of awakening that Spirit of Religion.

4thly. The Account, the Dr. gives of Mr Whitefield's making a ſecond Viſit to SCOTLAND, is of itſelf, in my Opinion, ſufficient to confute the whole Charge of your Paper, with all, who underſtand the Principles and Conſtitution of the Church of Scotland, which refuſe the Moravian and Arminian Tenets. Yet, I'm told, Mr Whitefield was lately admitted to their Communion!

5thly. If the Dr. be right, when he thinks Mr Whitefield a Man rais'd up by Providence, to 'awaken a ſtupid and 'ungodly World to a Senſe of the important Affairs of 'Religion and Eternity,' is it not a fair Conſequence, that the Oppoſition, made to him therein, can have no other Tendency, than to keep Sinners in a State of carnal Security?

I would further acquaint you, of a Letter, I received from Mr. Whitefield's Brother, dated from Briſtol, MAY 21ſt, 1742, wherein he gives me a particular Account of him, but not a Syllable of this mighty Change in his Principles. —— And I have juſt come to Hand a Letter from Mr. Whitefield himſelf, dated LONDON, May 7th, 1742, which runs in the uſual Style of Affection, Piety and Friendſhip, and intimates his growing Succeſs and Encouragement, but ſays nothing at all of any change in his Sentiments. What! Does he write THAT only to his Friends at PHILADELPHIA! —— I have alſo enquired of a young Gentleman, juſt arrived from LONDON, who freely told me, he heard nothing of theſe Things, 'till he landed at Carolina, nor did he believe there was any Foundation for the Report.

This is all very ſtrange! Nor can we have Faith enough to believe Things, which by ſo many Circumſtances are render'd quite incredible. I'm ſure the NOVICE was not of Mr. Weſley's Way of thinking the 7th of laſt May; for in a Letter of that Date to one of his Zealous Diſciples here, he expreſſes himſelf in this Calviniſtick Language——'God 'is Love—You and I have found him to be Love—We 'know ſomething of ELECTING, DISTINGUISHING 'Love.'

New York, Sept. 13. Yeſterday arrived Capt Cannon from Boſton, by whom we have the following Extract of a Letter. "——— I can't omit giving you the Account of the agreeable Sight we had here on Sunday laſt, when came into this Port ſeven Sail, three of them was Engliſh Privateers, one belonging to Boſton, the others to St Kitts; their Prizes were a Sloop from Curacoa, trading on the Spaniſh Main, laden with Sale Goods, they have another of the ſame ſort, not yet arriv'd; they have taken out of theſe two Sloops upwards of 10,000 Pieces of Eight in Specie; the other is a Ship of 300 Tons, loaden with Sugars and Rum, from Jamaica to London; but all her Hands had quitted her, took to their Boat, and left only the Captain and his Wife on board, for the Ship was very leaky. Theſe Privateers met her, the Captain of the Ship contracted with them, if they would put a ſufficient Number of Hands on board to bring the Ship into any Engliſh Port, he wou'd give Salvage for the Whole, one Third, which will amount to a large Sum. The other two that brought up the Rear, were two Spaniſh Privateers which they took out of Nineteen Sail, returning from Georgia to the Havanna. They drove Four of them aſhore, one more they took, which they gave to the Priſoners to go home in, and could one of the Engliſh Privateers have joined with the other two, they would have taken every one of them, but as ſhe was Convoy to the Prizes ſhe could not leave them. They have in the whole 20,000 Pieces of Eight in Specie."

Philadelphia, Sept 16. An Extract of a private Letter from Boſton, dated Sept 6th, 1742. "——— Yeſterday arrived here Captains Rouſe, Flowers, and Williamſon in 3 Privateers, who met with the Spaniſh Fleet off the Capes of Florida, bound to the Havanna from Georgia, conſiſting of Nineteen Sail, whom they attacked, took Five Spaniſh Privateers and run Five more of them aſhore; Four of them is ſafe in our Harbour. The Spaniards made ſuch an Expedition as our Forces did at Carthagena, came off with broken Bones, with the Loſs of 300 Men. We now have in Goal, Two Captains, One Lieutenant of Marines, taken Priſoners, who give us a particular Accout of their whole Proceedings."

London, May 11. By People lately come from Calais, we learn, that 600 Men are at work on the Fortifications of that Place; and that great Numbers of Soldiers are conſtantly arriving in that Neighbourhood.

May 13. The Cartel between Great Britain and Spain being ſettled, the Spaniſh Priſoners will be ſpeedily ſent from Portſmouth to St. Sebaſtian's, in Exchange for ours.

May 15. On the 10th Inſtant the Hound Man of War, brought into Plymouth a new Spaniſh Privateer Snow, of Bilboa, which had been out but four Days; ſhe has 6 Carriage and 14 Swivel Guns, and 81 Men.

May 18. The Grand Duke, Mauger, from Leghorn, is arrived at Dartmouth. In his Paſſage he fell in with a Ship from Ireland, with Proviſions, and having Reaſon to believe ſhe was deſign'd for the Spaniards, ſent her into Plymouth.

CHARLES-TOWN, September 27.

On Wednesday last died Mr HENRY SELWIN, Merchant, much lamented by all who had the Pleasure of his Acquaintance. His mild and generous Temper, his affable and courteous Behaviour secured him, while in Life, a general Esteem. He was carefully observant of religious Duties, and contemned those Vices too prevalent amongst us, and, tho' but early in Days, was possessed of a competent Knowledge of useful Literature: The next Day he was interred, in a Manner suitable to his Degree and Character.

The same Day died Mr. Paul Dourfaint, much respected while in Life, and now dead as much lamented, as he had ever distinguished himself the most affectionate Husband, indulgent Parent, kindest Master, and the sincerest Friend.

On Thursday Mr Edward Gough was married to Mrs. Mary Elliot, a beautiful young Widow, with fine Accomplishments, and a very considerable Fortune.

On Saturday the Charles Town and Beaufort Gallies sail'd for Port Royal, we hear, under the Command of Captain William Lyttel. And, Yesterday sail'd on a Cruise the Rye Man of War; several Vessels outward bound, then in the Road, set Sail at the same Time for the Benefit of her Convoy.
